Well, here we have it! Week 2 of some good 'ole kickball in Simi Valley and what a cold one it was! The air was chilly and the competition was fierce, but teams were out in full force ready to keep their legs warm and kick more balls. Game 1 provided for a good showdown between some fresh faces and "old" veterans as Sex Panthers hosted Balls and Dolls. Though the score resembled that of an MLS game, it didn't mean the teams weren't trying. Each inning quickly passed as both teams managed to play stellar defense against each other. Though the new team of soccer players played strongly and the Sex Panthers were missing many key players (3 to be exact, I think), the latter team was able to pull through with a victory thanks to the determination and endurance of Mike Lipka. Amaaaaaazing! Stay tuned this week as Sex Panthers take on First Cousins preceded by Happy Hour taking on Balls and Dolls.

Congrats to Happy Hour for representing CAMercury at the Founder's Cup tournament in Las Vegas. It was a great weekend that kicked off with Opening Ceremonies and the presenting of the team banners. The all day tournament kicked off with some pool play and the beer garden in the evening. Happy Hour had one tie and two losses in pool play, but had an awesome time in Sin City. The Others from DC Capital beat the Best Coast Ballers from the CA Gold Rush in San Francisco to win the national championship.
