

- Post Flyers at local colleges – We have flyers just let me know or print them out.
- Put something about registering in your status updates on facebook/twitter
- Going to bars in the area and spreading the word about kickball.
- Passing out goodies as well – We have beads, flyers, cards, and stickers – We can give you to hand out just email us.
- Ask local business if they want to put together a team
- Talk to other sports leagues about kickball

• Flyers- Does your community have a popular park or walking trail? These active people Would make great WAKA players.

• Social networking sites – i.e. Craig's List, Meet Up, Facebook, Twitter, My Space, Squidoo - send e-cards, and post on forums, chat rooms, start a “group”

• Circle of influence - Let your friends and colleagues know you are involved with WAKA. Are you involved in any clubs or boards? Invite your fellow members out to play!

• Hit the bars – Kickball players love to party so heading to the bars with the WAKA brand is always promising.

Post flyers or post cards where there is high visibility:

- Company bulletin boards of friends and family
- University offices
- Recreational facilities
- Local co-ops and galleries
- Apartment buildings
- Community service/ activity centers
- Shopping Malls
- Car Washes
- Your voice mail message
- Liquor and convenience stores
- Utility poles